

money garden :: stories + habits

The Launch / December 6, 2021 / Jenny Girl Friday

warming up

Work Math from last Time
Intro
Reflection - on the back Sharing

goals

You can say:

I have (or desire to have) a positive feeling about money
I feel excited to building an on-going relationship with money
I see money-tending as an important part of my job
I plan to build time in my schedule for money tending context

Mainstream + cultural views about money Pitfalls / Lifelines :: in life and as a self-employed person Observe that stories and emotions affect our behaviors
Some other metaphors taking care of a money garden

Why a garden? Groundwork Plants
 Tending
 Harvest

menu

Q&A Circle the ones you're interested in Choose 1-2 actions >> Put into Next Steps

last thoughts

How can taking care of money support my values? Self? Clients?

What is my biggest take-away from this session?

reflection on money stories

Initial Answers

Notes for later

How would you define money?
Where did you learn about money ... as a child, teen, adult? What did you learn?
People with money tend to be...
Do you think money changes people?
How much do you care about money?
How do you feel about money, numbers, paying taxes ...
What is one of your biggest challenges or stressors with money? What's a good habit or attitude that you have? That you feel proud of or works well?

next steps

Name a shift you would like to make with money - a new attitude, reframe, knowledge to acquire, skillset to develop.

Action 1	When	Resources

Describe a new money tending habit you would like to build:

Action 1	When will it happen?	Resources